As more fully described in the Prospectus Supplement (Registration No. 333-158663), the Market-Linked Step Up Return Notes Linked to the S&P 500 Index due January 27, 2012 (the "Notes") are senior, unsecured debt securities of Bank of America Corporation ("BAC") and are not guaranteed or insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") or secured by collateral. The Notes will rank equally with all of BAC's other unsecured and unsubordinated debt, and any payments due on the Notes, including any repayment of principal will be subject to the credit risk of BAC. According to the prospectus for the Notes, the Notes are designed for investors who anticipate that the level of the S&P 500 Index will increase over the term of the Notes from the Starting Value to the Ending Value (as defined in the prospectus). Investors must be willing to forego interest payments on the Notes and be willing to bear the risk of loss of all or substantially all of their investment.

For additional information regarding the Notes, including the applicable risk factors, please consult the Prospectus Supplement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by BAC.
